Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Troparion, Tone 2: (page 29)
When You went down to death, O Life Immortal,* You struck Hades dead with the blazing light of Your divinity.* When You raised the dead from the nether world,* all the powers of heaven cried out:* “O Giver of Life, Christ our God, glory be to You!”

† Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.
Kontakion, Tone 2:
You rose from the tomb, O almighty Savior;* and Hades, seeing this wonder, was stricken with fear; and the dead arose.* Creation saw and rejoices with You, and Adam exults.* And the world, my Savior, sings Your praises for ever.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.
Theotokion, Tone 2:
The tomb and death could not hold the Mother of God,* unceasing in her intercession and an unfailing hope of patronage,* for as the Mother of Life she was transferred to life* by Him Who had dwelt in her ever-virgin womb.

The Lord is my strength and my song of praise, and He has become my salvation.

verse: The Lord will hear you in the day of tribulation; the name of the God of Jacob will shield you.
