

Twenty-first Sunday after Pentecost

Troparion, Tone 4: (page 29)

When the disciples of the Lord learned from the angel* the glorious news of the resurrection* and cast off the ancestral condemnation,* they proudly told the apostles:* “Death has been plundered!* Christ our God is risen,* granting to the world great mercy.”

† Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion, Tone 4:

My Savior and Deliverer from the grave* as God raised out of bondage the children of the earth* and shattered the gates of Hades,* and as Master, He rose on the third day.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Theotokion, Tone 4:

By your birth, O immaculate one,* Joachim and Anna were freed from the reproach of childlessness,* and Adam and Eve* from the corruption of death.* And your people, redeemed from the guilt of their sins,* celebrate as they cry out to you:* “The barren one gives birth to the Mother of God* and nourisher of our life.”

Prokeimenon, Tone 4: (page 33)

How great are Your works, O Lord* You have made all things in wisdom.

verse: Bless the Lord, O my soul:* O Lord my God, You are exceedingly great.

Alleluia, Tone 4: (page 33)

verse: Poise yourself and advance in triumph* and reign in the cause of truth, and meekness, and justice.

verse: You have loved justice* and hated iniquity.

Communion verse: (page 67)

Praise the Lord from the heavens,* praise Him in the highest.* Alleluia. (3X)
